Counsel,

Plaintiffs oppose your motion.

We note further that the only two reasons you have given for why the government is refusing to provide a list of seized FRTs make no sense. First, with regard to compromising ongoing investigations, the persons from whom the FRTs have been seized obviously already know that they have been seized. The information is not secret.

Second, and this goes to both arguments, ATF regularly publishes Legal Notices listing seized property—including, from time-to-time, FRTs—on the internet. I attach an example posted earlier today. This fact—that ATF routinely publicizes these seizures for all the world to see—cannot be squared with Defendants’ assertions that providing a list to Plaintiffs’ counsel for the sole purpose of checking which of the seized FRTs belonged to members of our organizational clients would compromise ongoing investigations or violate the Privacy Act.

In any event, the Privacy Act expressly permits disclosure of information “pursuant to the order of a court of competent jurisdiction,” 5 U.S.C. § 552a (b)(11). If the government believes that the existing order is insufficiently explicit, Plaintiffs will be happy to join in a request to the Court asking that it issue an Order requiring Defendants to provide the requested information to Plaintiffs’ counsel.

All of that notwithstanding, if there are particular cases in which Defendants can demonstrate to the Court’s satisfaction that disclosing information about a seizure to Plaintiffs’ counsel for this limited purpose would truly compromise an ongoing investigation, Plaintiffs would not oppose a limited carveout from the general obligation to make such a disclosure.

Counsel –

ATF cannot provide a list of the individuals from whom it has confiscated or seized FRTs for a variety of reasons, including because disclosure of this information could compromise ongoing investigations and/or implicate the restrictions in the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552a.

Accordingly, we are considering seeking a stay of the judgment pending appeal, as well as asking the court to alter or amend the judgment under FRCP 59(e). Specifically, if the court does not stay its judgment, we are considering proposing that instead of ordering Defendants to return all seized or confiscated FRTs or FRT components within 30 days, it order ATF to return FRTs or FRT components to those Plaintiff-members (1) who are not otherwise prohibited persons, (2) who contact ATF to seek return of their device, and (3) who can provide proof of their membership and identity to ATF. Given the urgency created by the Court's 30-day deadline, please inform us of Defendants' position on this motion by 3pm Eastern today, July 31.

Thank you,

---

Thank you for your email. Unfortunately, we do not have a comprehensive list of those whose property was wrongly seized and are entitled to its return. Nor, for obvious reasons, will our organizational clients provide copies of their membership lists to the Government. On the other hand, the Government has a comprehensive list of those from whom it confiscated or seized FRTs or FRT components. Please provide that list and we will tell you which are encompassed by the Court's July 23 order.

Counsel –

Pursuant to the Court's July 23 order, we are instructing ATF on the return of FRTs and FRT components to all parties to the lawsuit. So that that process can begin, please provide as soon as possible a list of Plaintiffs and the individuals who were members of an Organizational Plaintiff at the time the complaint was filed and who have had FRTs or FRT components confiscated or seized. As we discussed in the context of the preliminary injunction, ATF otherwise has no way of determining who is covered by the Court's order as a member of an Organizational Plaintiff.

Thank you,

OFFICIAL NOTIFICATION
POSTED ON JULY 31, 2024

LEGAL NOTICE
ATTENTION

The Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF) gives notice that the property listed below was seized for federal forfeiture for violation of federal law. Laws and procedures applicable to the forfeiture process can be found at 19 U.S.C. Sections 1602 - 1619, 18 U.S.C. Section 983, and 28 C.F.R. Parts 8 and 9.

To File a Petition for Remission or Mitigation: The government may consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardons all or part of the property from the forfeiture. You may file both a claim and a Petition for Remission or Mitigation (Petition). If you file only a petition and no one else files a claim, your petition will be decided by the seizing agency and will not be heard in U.S. District Court. Petitions do not require a cost bond to be submitted and therefore can be filed online. The petition must include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation, include any facts you believe justify the return of the property, and be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. Section 1746. For the regulations pertaining to remission or mitigation of the forfeiture, see 28 C.F.R. Sections 9.1 - 9.9. The criteria for remission of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(a). The criteria for mitigation of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(b). The petition need not be made in any particular form and may be filed online or in writing. You should file a petition not later than 11:59 PM EST 30 days after the date of final publication of this notice. See 28 C.F.R. Section 9.3(a). The <https://www.forfeiture.gov/FilingPetition.htm> website provides access to a standard petition form that may be mailed and the link to file a petition online. If you cannot find the desired assets online, you must file your petition in writing. This website also provides information on the agency filing address to use when mailing as well as answers to frequently asked questions (FAQs) about filing a petition.

To File a Claim: You may contest the forfeiture of the property listed below in U.S. District Court by filing a claim not later than 11:59 PM EST 20 days after the date of final publication of this notice of seizure, unless you received a written notice via personal letter in which case the deadline set forth in the letter shall apply. A claim must be in writing, describe the seized property, state your ownership or other interest in the property, and be made under oath, subject to penalty of perjury or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 18 U.S.C. Section 983(a)(2)(C) and 28 U.S.C. Section 1746. The claim of ownership must be accompanied by a cost bond in the amount of $5,000 or ten percent (10%) of the value of the claimed property, whichever is lower, but not less than $250. If you are unable to post a cost bond, you may request that ATF waive the cost bond requirement by submitting an In Forma Pauperis Cost Bond Waiver Petition to ATF Forfeiture Counsel. The cost bond must be in the form of a cashier's check or money order. No personal checks will be accepted. See 19 U.S.C. Section 1608. Due to the cost bond requirement, these claims cannot be filed online. A claim need not be made in any particular form, but a claim form is available at <https://www.forfeiture.gov/FilingClaim.htm>. See 18 U.S.C. Section 983(a)(2)(D). Claims must be sent to the ATF pursuant to the instructions shown in this notice.

Submit all documents to the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives, Forfeiture Counsel, Asset Forfeiture & Seized Property Division, 99 New York Avenue., NE, AFSPD Room (3.E.454), Washington, DC 20226.

OFFICIAL NOTIFICATION
POSTED ON AUGUST 07, 2024

LEGAL NOTICE
ATTENTION

The Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF) gives notice that the property listed below was seized for federal forfeiture for violation of federal law. Laws and procedures applicable to the forfeiture process can be found at 19 U.S.C. Sections 1602 - 1619, 18 U.S.C. Section 983, and 28 C.F.R. Parts 8 and 9.

To File a Petition for Remission or Mitigation: The government may consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardons all or part of the property from the forfeiture. You may file both a claim and a Petition for Remission or Mitigation (Petition). If you file only a petition and no one else files a claim, your petition will be decided by the seizing agency and will not be heard in U.S. District Court. Petitions do not require a cost bond to be submitted and therefore can be filed online. The petition must include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation, include any facts you believe justify the return of the property, and be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. Section 1746. For the regulations pertaining to remission or mitigation of the forfeiture, see 28 C.F.R. Sections 9.1 - 9.9. The criteria for remission of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(a). The criteria for mitigation of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(b). The petition need not be made in any particular form and may be filed online or in writing. You should file a petition not later than 11:59 PM EST 30 days after the date of final publication of this notice. See 28 C.F.R. Section 9.3(a). The <https://www.forfeiture.gov/FilingPetition.htm> website provides access to a standard petition form that may be mailed and the link to file a petition online. If you cannot find the desired assets online, you must file your petition in writing. This website also provides information on the agency filing address to use when mailing as well as answers to frequently asked questions (FAQs) about filing a petition.

To File a Claim: You may contest the forfeiture of the property listed below in U.S. District Court by filing a claim not later than 11:59 PM EST 20 days after the date of final publication of this notice of seizure, unless you received a written notice via personal letter in which case the deadline set forth in the letter shall apply. A claim must be in writing, describe the seized property, state your ownership or other interest in the property, and be made under oath, subject to penalty of perjury or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 18 U.S.C. Section 983(a)(2)(C) and 28 U.S.C. Section 1746. The claim of ownership must be accompanied by a cost bond in the amount of $5,000 or ten percent (10%) of the value of the claimed property, whichever is lower, but not less than $250. If you are unable to post a cost bond, you may request that ATF waive the cost bond requirement by submitting an In Forma Pauperis Cost Bond Waiver Petition to ATF Forfeiture Counsel. The cost bond must be in the form of a cashier's check or money order. No personal checks will be accepted. See 19 U.S.C. Section 1608. Due to the cost bond requirement, these claims cannot be filed online. A claim need not be made in any particular form, but a claim form is available at <https://www.forfeiture.gov/FilingClaim.htm>. See 18 U.S.C. Section 983(a)(2)(D). Claims must be sent to the ATF pursuant to the instructions shown in this notice.

Submit all documents to the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives, Forfeiture Counsel, Asset Forfeiture & Seized Property Division, 99 New York Avenue., NE, AFSPD Room (3.E.454), Washington, DC 20226.
